

ACCESSIBILITY FOR THE LISTENING SESSION

The venue for the public hearing is the Newseum located at 555 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest, Washington, DC 20001. The Newseum provides ADA compliant services to visitors who are deaf or hard of hearing, have mobility impairments, and are blind or have low vision. Trained service animals are welcome at the Newseum. All service animals must remain on a leash or be harnessed at all times. Please note that Newseum staff and security officers are not permitted to handle service animals.

BUILDING ACCESSIBILITY

Visitor Services maintains a limited number of wheelchairs, mobility scooters and walking aids for use in the Newseum that are available on a first-come, first-served basis (no advance reservations). All are free at the coat check on Level 1. Visitors are requested to leave a photo ID while using any of these items.

Elevators provide access to all floors and exhibits, and are located on the east and west ends of the building. All restrooms are wheelchair accessible and located on the east end of the building.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE BLIND OR HAVE LOW VISION

The meeting will be broadcast live, recorded and will be made available online at www.cops.usdoj.gov/policingtaskforce.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE DEAF OR HARD OF HEARING

American Sign Language will be provided throughout the duration of the meeting for those in attendance.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE VIEWING THE EVENT ONLINE

The meeting will be webcast live with American Sign Language interpretation and can be accessed at www.cops.usdoj.gov/policingtaskforce in compliance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act. A copy of the webcast will be posted online with closed captioning as soon as available after the Listening Session.

ACCOMMODATION REQUESTS

To request accommodation of a disability, please contact Jessica Drake at (202) 457-7771 as early as possible to give the Department of Justice time to process your request.