

ACCESSIBILITY FOR THE LISTENING SESSION

The venue for the public hearing is the Newseum located at 555 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest, Washington, DC 20001. The Newseum provides ADA compliant services to visitors who are deaf or hard of hearing, have mobility impairments, and are blind or have low vision.

Trained service animals are welcome at the Newseum. All service animals must remain on a leash or be harnessed at all times. Please note that Newseum staff and security officers are not permitted to handle service animals.

BUILDING ACCESSIBILITY

The Newseum's exhibits and store are fully wheelchair accessible. Visitor Services maintains a limited number of wheelchairs, mobility scooters and walking aids for use in the Newseum that are available on a first-come, first-served basis. All are free at the coat check on Level 1. Visitors are requested to leave a photo ID while using any of these items. Sorry, no advance or phone reservations.

Elevators provide access to all floors and exhibits, and are located on the east and west ends of the building. All restrooms are wheelchair accessible and located on the east end of the building. There is minimal seating in the exhibit areas.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE BLIND OR HAVE LOW VISION

The meeting will be broadcast live, recorded and will be made available online within 7 days.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE DEAF OR HARD OF HEARING

Assistive listening devices (headsets) are available at the information desk. Visitors are requested to leave a photo ID while using any of these items.

American Sign Language will be provided throughout the duration of the meeting for those in attendance.

FOR MEETING ATTENDEES WHO ARE VIEWING THE EVENT ONLINE

The meeting will be webcast live and can be accessed on this website in compliance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act. A transcription of the meeting will be posted on this website within 7 days of the event.