

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Justin Hansford

Justin Hansford, J.D. is an assistant professor of Law at Saint Louis University School of Law. His research incorporates legal history, legal ethics, critical race theory, human rights, and the Global Justice Movement in a broader attempt to interrogate injustice in society. He has a B.A. from Howard University and a J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, where he was a founder of The Georgetown Journal of Law and Modern Critical Race Perspectives. He joined the law faculty after clerking for Judge Damon Keith on the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Living just 10 minutes from Ferguson, Hansford has been at the forefront of legal organizing and advocacy in the aftermath of the murder of Mike Brown. He co-authored the Ferguson to Geneva report to United Nations on St. Louis Police human rights violations and has served as a policy advisor for local, state and federal proposed reforms of the criminal justice system. Hansford is a point person for the Ferguson Legal Defense Committee and a board member of the Project for Law Enforcement Accountability for Justice.

As a result of his work in Ferguson, has been featured in the USA Today, Washington Post, Time Magazine, Ebony, and the Globe and Mail, and he has appeared on CNN, MSNBC, National Public Radio other news outlets. Hansford has been honored by the National Bar Association as one of the Top 40 Lawyers Under 40 and recently was named by Revolt TV as one of the 25 New Leaders of Social Justice.
